CARD OF THANKS.

We want to thank each and every one of the kindred shown up in our mother's sickness for the beautiful flowers and Mr. Brooks for the comforting words at our dear mother's funeral.

MR. THOMAS JOHNS,
MR. AND MRS. GEORGE AMES,
MR. AND MRS. GREENVILLE WHITMAN,
MR. JAMES MCKAY,
MR. EUGENE WATSON.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank my dear friends for all the beautiful flowers and also for the many kind and loving remembrances that have been showered upon me both in person and by letter in these, the darkest and most sorrowful hours of my life. I am most grateful to Mr. Brooks for his thoughtfulness and comforting words, and to Mr. C. P. Barnes for closing the service and the teachers for their kind words.

Sincerely,
Mrs. GEORGIA PRIDE.

Plant your sweet peas early and get the seed at Stone's.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

A Wild Night for Wild Cats.

Wednesday night was wild, and the Wild Cats of Norway, restless in the storm, gathered at the hospitable home of E. E. Andrews on Main street. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Andrews, the Drs. Brock, Curry, Barker and Bartlett, with their wives, C. P. Barnes and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Cushman and Mrs. A. J. Stearns made up a jolly company.

Supper was served at 7 o'clock and the hours of the evening sped away with jest and jollity. What matter how the night behaved, what matter how the north wind raved, this club of congenial spirits can and do most heartily enjoy their semi-occasional gatherings.

The Country School.

The Epworth League held its regular business meeting and social, Wednesday evening. After the business meeting a Country School social was enjoyed.

About 30 young people were present and were dressed equal to the occasion. Alice Gammon was the teacher. She commenced her school by having the first division stand in the floor and spell.

After the spelling lesson was heard, a reading lesson was taken up. There was a recess, during which refreshments were served, being distributed to each person in paper bags.

At the next session the teacher asked the scholars to draw the picture of some animal on the board, while the school was drawing it. What matter to guess what it was and write it down on a piece of paper. The very last lesson was a recitation lesson. Each scholar had a number and there were four of the same kind, and the same were to go out in the floor and recite some Mother Goose rhyme.

All enjoyed a good time, notwithstanding the unfavorable night. The school board were Elwood Brooks, Fred Allen and Winnie Snow.

W. C. T. U.

Conspicuous upon the W. C. T. U. women of our village just now are the blue and red ribbon bows they are wearing.

These bows mean that the membership contest is raging hot, and it is war to the knife to see which side will get the most new members before April 14. At last accounts the blues were ahead. The grand initiation into the mysteries of White Ribbons will take place at the vestry of the Baptist church Tuesday, April 14, at 2.30 p. m. Let every member be present to assist in giving the grip.

Verne Rich will resume charge of the mineral spring water business again next Monday.

The Norway High school base ball schedule for the season of 1908, R. C. Kimball, manager; H. K. Bickford, captain:

April 12—Gould Academy at Norway.
April 15—Norway at Paris.
May 2—Norway at Bridgton.
May 5—Bridgton at Norway.

Republican Caucus.

At the Republican caucus held at the Norway Opera house last Saturday afternoon, George R. Howe was chosen chairman and Charles P. Barnes secretary. This was one of the largest caucuses in point of attendance ever held in Norway. Ninety-six ballots were cast for a Republican town committee all being for:

A. J. Stearns, Esq.,
T. P. Richardson,
George H. Dunn,
W. V. H. Jenkins,
Frank A. Mann.

who were declared duly elected.

Six candidates were elected to attend the state convention at Portland, April 30 to nominate six candidates for electors of president and vice president and four delegates at large to attend the Chicago convention. They were:

W. W. Whitmarsh,
C. Leavitt,
V. L. Partridge,
S. J. Record,

each of above receiving 32 votes and Irving Frost, 28 votes.

Mr. Frost received 28 votes and Mr. Whitmarsh 26.

The above six were declared elected. The delegates were instructed to work for the election of large number of votes to the nomination of William Howard Taft for President.

THIS PAPER HAS ONE THOUSAND MORE LEGITIMATE, NAME-PRINTED LAWSHE APPROVED SUBSCRIBERS ON ITS LISTS THAN ANY OTHER PAPER PRINTED IN THIS COUNTY

Methodist Church Items.

A very appreciative audience greeted Mr. Brooks of the Methodist church Sunday morning, to listen to his sermon from Heb. 4:7, "Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." This is the second of the two texts which were chosen for the service.

Brooks in his recent serious illness. Again, in the afternoon, crowds came to hear Pastor Brooks relate his wonderful experience of healing. Settees and chairs were carried in until well over 400 people were accommodated with seats.

Some even brought chairs with them. Mr. Brooks related first his healing in answer to prayer 17 years ago, then briefly referred to his experience of six years ago and closed by stating the facts concerning his healing three weeks ago.

Rev. T. N. Kewley, Methodist minister of South Paris, assisted in the service. Special music was rendered by the church quartette.

About 90 attended the Tuesday evening prayer meeting at the Methodist church this week.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly business meeting and social at the church parlors this Wednesday evening.

School Notes.

The following schools will begin next Monday, April 13, with the following teachers:

Center—Adeline S. Brett.
Pike Hill—Gladie D. Frost.
Noble Corner—Leon N. Noyes.
Holt—John B. Cole.

The children of the Yaggeer district will be conveyed to the Center school by Howard A. Knightly.

The Oxford County Teachers' Association meets at the new school building at Mexico, Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9. Prominent speakers will be Mrs. Marion Haskell, the reader, Sara Danforth and the dancer, Marion Bangs, all of whom performed their parts well. Ruth Cummings represented the one who wished to be a Wild West girl. She came on the stage riding her pony and sang "My Idaho" in a most pleasing manner. The whole affair was much enjoyed by every one.

A Gay Old Sport.

George F. Hall, the king of jollivity, and his merry company in the merry musical farce, A Gay Old Sport, with its fund of real humor and its clever specialties, its side splitting climaxes and situations will be the attraction at the Norway Extravagantly presented, and will be extravagantly presented.

The play is genuinely derby in the race of humor. Mr. Hall has abundant opportunity for the display of his ability as a comedian, and his topical songs and imitations of the famous actors are ways a welcome feature. Some of the hits in the piece are Budweiser's A Friend of Mine, Bye-bye, My Sail or Boy Jack Tar, Schnitzelbank, Smiley on Me and Bill's a Millionaire. Prices 35 and 50 cents. Seats on sale at Stone's.

Mrs. Sophia M. Johns.

Mrs. Sophia M. Johns died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Ames, on Water street, Thursday, April 20. Mrs. Johns was born in Nova Scotia, the daughter of Noah and Lois Goodwin. She married William Johns, now deceased. They lived in Nova Scotia in their early married life, later coming to Norway, 12 years ago. She has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Ames.

Mrs. Johns has been a member of the Methodist church many years. Nine children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Johns, six of whom are now living. The funeral was from the house, Saturday, Rev. C. A. Brooks the attending clergyman. There were some very pretty floral offerings. Interment in Pine Grove cemetery.

Robert Wood is at home for a few days, from his work at Rochester, N. H.

At the stockholders' meeting of the Norway and Salsburg Shoe Shop Company, Monday evening, Charles F. Ridgman was elected president of both corporations, and C. N. Tubbs, C. M. Smith and F. W. Sanborn, directors. H. D. Smith, treasurer, Albert J. Stearns, clerk. C. N. Tubbs was elected vice president of the Salsburg Co. There are $12,000 bonds of the Norway Shoe Shop Co. outstanding.

A Public Landing a Necessity.

Did you ever think of it? Thirty odd cottages by the lakeside and more building each year and no public landing. These cottages are taxed and per right it seems to us that it is not asking too much for the town to own and maintain a public wharf where cottage owners and people who have business up the lake can land without trespassing.

There isn't any good place for such a landing on the road—as all the water front is occupied by logs—yet there is a necessity for a public wharf and there should be one somewhere.

Maybe one could be had between the steamer wharf and Stephenson's. This would require the laying out of a way over the land of Geo. A. Cole and by his boat house.

A petition of those interested would receive careful consideration by the proper authorities as any other petition for a public way and our way of thinking it would be the proper thing to do. Why not start the petition?

It has been reported on the street that A. L. Sanborn would try to obtain the position of night watchman for the coming year. Mr. Sanborn wishes to deny this report as he says there is no truth in it. He expects to go on the road as a traveling salesman in a few weeks.

There were bits of good acting all the way through. In the above scene Mrs. Mann's natural giggle and the shrug of the shoulders were true to life. Mrs. Sampson never did better work than as the maiden aunt.

Mrs. Charles Akers, Norway's favorite actress, did not have a very prominent part as "Clayton" in the play of the last act, but her work was a continued series of hits. She is a born actress. When she was on the stage everyone followed her, and their attention and applause were expressions of appreciation. This was even for the benefit of the Pythian Sisters.

Hiram Libby is improving.

Capt. M. P. Stiles is repairing his stable; carpenter, George Swift.

Mrs. R. L. Powers has her spring and summer millinery opening, Friday and Saturday this week.

The snowstorm of Wednesday delayed traffic on the Norway & Paris Street Railway.

J. K. Chase is closing out his stock of goods. Mr. Chase is thinking of moving to Mechanic Falls, though he has not fully decided.

The monthly business meeting of the Y. P. C. U. of the Universalist church will be held this week, Thursday evening at Concert hall.

"Sold all the eggs I had," said a lady the other day, "so take out the 'ad.'"

This ad appeared three weeks at a cost of 50 cents in the "All Stars Column."

Mason F. Frost turned his horse out to drink, March 31st, and in running about it broke a leg. The horse was killed and now Mr. Frost is looking to buy another horse.

S. C. Foster's song, "Heart Memories" will be sung by Charles Bartlett at the Bijou theatre, South Paris, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of next week. It will be illustrated.

Norway friends have received invitations to be present at the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Horace J. Marton, April 17, Park, Chicago, Friday evening, April 17.

The gallery was well filled with spectators at the inspection of Co. D by Capt. Ansell of the United States Army last Thursday evening. The boys were out, nearly all of them, and did good work.

The Easter window at Smiley's dry goods store is something out of the ordinary. The goods are displayed with a background of red and gold.

The trustees of the Norway Savings Bank organized last Monday, and elected A. S. Kimball, president, F. H. Noyes, vice-president, and Geo. E. Tubbs, clerk and treasurer.

Victor Partridge jammed his foot quite bad, Wednesday, at the mill at York's Mills, while handling logs. He has not had an accident before since he was burned last Thanksgiving time—quite a long time with him.

Charles F. Partridge of Rochester, N. Y., has been visiting his father, Charles W. Partridge, at Norway Lake, who is sick and confined indoors. Mr. Partridge, sr., is slightly better, this week.

The following is the music for Palm Sunday at the Universalist church:

Tenor solo, Palm, Faure.....F. E. Tower
O Taste and See, Marston.....Quartet
Duet, O Love Divine, Salsburg.....Quartet
Response.....Mrs. Kimball and Mr. Tower

"Hillmen in New York" was the attraction at the Norway Opera House, Friday evening. There was not a large crowd but the entertainment was worthy of good patronage. There were many features that brought the smiles and were well received.

By request the Ladies' Veranda club will give a Poverty ball in Norway Opera House, Friday evening, May 1st. Co in your old clothes and have one of the best times of the year. The ball will be under the same management as the ball given Feb. 14th. Music by Stearns' orchestra.

The Norway Percheron Horse Breeders' Association's percheron, Vasistas, was taken sick, Wednesday, while Guy C. Curtis was driving into town with him. When near Frank Hurd's blacksmith shop he appeared to be lame. Mr. Curtis put him in the stable at Justus Millett's and it was soon seen that he was sick. Veterinary Charles O. Fogg was called who pronounced the trouble to be black water. The horse suffered a good deal during the afternoon. C. F. Kirk, veterinary of Lewiston, was called to assist Mr. Fogg. Wednesday morning the horse was in an improved condition.

"Our Boys."

Our Boys at Norway Opera House on Wednesday evening, was all that manager, Chester E. Oelrich, had promised, a comedy gem. Mr. Oelrich has lots of courage to stage such plays as, "The Bold Butcher," "The Boys," "The Boys," with local talent, and now in May he is to give us "The Christian."

The make-ups were artistic and that of every character a study, appropriate for the time and season, neither over nor under. The boys brought the points that wanted emphasis.

The two boys came home after having been sent abroad to travel, study and polish off by their wealthy fathers, the aristocratic Sir Geoffrey and the retired butler, meekheart, Fred Moore as Sir Geoffrey's son was about as sissy and disappointing to his father and friends as could be, Chester E. Oelrich, the butter merchant's, Frank Kimball's son, was a pretty fair specimen of a young man, but he fell in love with the rise and somewhat haughty heiress, "Violet Melrose" or Mrs. June Hutchinson who looked and acted her part, whom Sir Geoffrey's boy was supposed to marry. He fell in love with the penniless cousin, "Mary Melrose" or Mrs. Harry Mann, an outspoken, fancy and care-free young lady.

Because the boys refused to follow their fathers' "systems" and not marry the young ladies of their own choice, they were out of without even the proverbial shilling and went out into the world to get their own living.

Poverty went with them and abode with them in the sky parlor of a London boarding house, but their fathers, sweethearts and maiden aunt, Mrs. Melville Sampson, came to their rescue. The old gent could not play the Roman fathers longer. All got their heart's desire and we hope lived happy ever after.

There were bits of good acting all the way through. In the above scene Mrs. Mann's natural giggle and the shrug of the shoulders were true to life. Mrs. Sampson never did better work than as the maiden aunt.

Mrs. Charles Akers, Norway's favorite actress, did not have a very prominent part as "Clayton" in the play of the last act, but her work was a continued series of hits. She is a born actress. # SOUTH WATERFORD.

Dairy Testing Association.

The regular monthly meeting of the Waterford Dairy Testing Association was held at Grange hall on Wednesday evening, April 1, President L. E. McIntire presiding. State Dairy Inspector Leon S. Merrill of Solon was present and gave a most interesting, practical address, which was listened to with close attention by a good sized audience of members and a number of ladies. Several gentlemen who are not members, not engaged in the dairy business, were attracted to the meeting, showing the general interest in the objects of the association prevailing in this community.

Mr. Merrill's address was in the form of an illustrated lecture, reminding one of a schoolmaster giving a lesson in mathematics to a class of pupils. Instead of a blackboard a large chart called a score-card was exhibited, prepared as a standard guide for the dairy inspection of dairies by the State department of agriculture. This chart represented in one column an ideal equipment of a dairy under the following heads: the relative value of each item of equipment being indicated by figures in score totaling 100. The first subject of the dairy equipment is:

Cows.—Physical condition, 4; health (outward appearance) 3; comfort, comprising bedding, temperature of stable and yard protection, 4; cubic feet of space per cow, over 300 ft., 3, over 400 ft., 4, 500 to 1000 ft., 6; feed, 4; water, clean, fresh, 5.

Next is the subject of the stable, its location, 3; drainage and freedom from contaminating surroundings, 6; construction: items, tight, sound floor, gutter, stall and mode of tying, manger (low down), smooth, tight walls, smooth, tight ceiling, box-stall, all these important requisites scoring 10; the necessary item of light, allowing 1 to 4 square feet of glass per cow, and even distribution of light scoring 10; the matter of ventilation, items, sliding windows hinged at bottom and King system or muslin curtains scoring, 3; stable yard (drainage) 2. The third subject of equipment is the milk-room, its location and freedom from contaminating surroundings and convenience scoring 6; construction, comprising floor, walls and ceilings, light, ventilation, screens, scoring 4; arrangement, 2; equipment, hot water or steam, cooler, narrow-top milk-pail, other utensils, scoring 6; water supply for utensils, clean, convenient and abundant, 10; milking units, 4.

Thus given a completely equipped dairy, we are introduced to another column in which the subjects of managing and operating such a dairy are given and items specified, as follows:

Cows.—First requisite, cleanliness, scores 10.

Stable.—Cleanliness, items, floor, ceiling, walls, ledges, mangers and partitions, windows, no other animals in stable, score 12; stable air, 4; removal of manure to field or proper pit 30 feet away, 4; cleanliness of stable yard, 2.

Milk-room.—Cleanliness, 6; care and cleanliness of utensils (inverted in pure air) clean (superficially) sterilized, 10.

Milking.—Cleanliness, clean dry hands, udders washed and dried, cleaned with moist cloth and with dry cloth, 14.

Care of Milk.—Cooling: items, removed from stable immediately after milking each cow and promptly cooled, cooled to 50 degrees F. or below 20.

Storing.—Below 50 degrees F.—S.

Transportation, 10.—Items, iced in summer; jacket or wet blanket, dry blanket, covered wagon.

The foregoing abstract from a copy of the official dairy score-card is worthy of careful study by every dairyman, who desires to place his establishment on a standard basis as to equipment and methods of operating.

President McIntire asked some very pertinent questions relative to protecting the milk-room from the presence of odors injurious to the cream. State Instructor Merrill, in reply, said "It is necessary that the milk cans be submerged in the cooling tank."

Harold Noble, the official tester of dairies for the association, was present and exhibited his record of two months' testing work, which shows satisfactory progress and results to date. Mr. Noble reports that members of the association are unanimously pleased with the operation of the testing system.

Henry Billings is confined to the house from a lingering case of la grippe.

Mrs. L. R. Muller is slowly recovering from a protracted illness of several weeks.

Alice Monroe returned to Rumford last Saturday, after two weeks' vacation at home.

W. K. Hamlin is preparing for the year's farming by hauling huge six-horse loads of manure to his mountain farm about three miles away.

Roy Adams, while at work at Hapgood & Willard's mill last Monday, received a serious injury to one of his feet by which he was laid off work for the present.

Ethel Monroe made a trip to Boston last week for the purpose of closing up her engagement as a student at the X. E. Conservatory of Music for the present term. She will remain at her Waterford home during the year.

Bear Mountain Grange held an all-day meeting on Saturday last. During the forenoon session, the election of a member of the executive committee to fill the place made vacant by the decease of Melville Monroe resulted in the election of Brother Leslie E. McIntire. The dinner furnished and served exclusively by the brothers of the Grange was a first class affair, consisting of oyster, ham sandwiches, cookies, lemon pie and navel oranges. On motion of Sister Clara Hamlin, a vote of thanks was given by the sisters for the excellent repast.

A program for the afternoon was announced by Sister Flora Stearns, leader, a part of which was passed over on account of absence of those to whom parts had been assigned. The question for discussion was Poultry. Sister C. J. Hamlin read an original paper on the question, Which are the best breeds for market? The paper will be published next week.

Sister Ida Riggs on the question, What colored eggs bring the best price, brown or white? said that according to her own experience and observation brown eggs are preferred for market.

Brother Fred Emery, Master of Highland Grange, Bridgton, State Deputy and Brother T. B. Moody of Jefferson Grange being present, by invitation gave interesting accounts of their experiences in the cultivation of the great American hog.

Particularly in methods of feeding for production of eggs. Brother Moody said one of the best constituents of hen feed for eggs is oats. Excellent singing by the choir, Sister Ida Riggs, director; Charlotte Morse, pianist.

The next meeting, April 18, will be in the afternoon, at which Brother E. K. Kilgore is to furnish a treat of apples. The question for debate will be: Would it be advisable for the farmers of Waterford to follow W. J. Thompson's method of raising potatoes? Opened by C. S. Hamlin.

Rev. E. P. Williams and daughter are away for three weeks' vacation in Hartford, Conn., and New York.

Mrs. Mary Pillsbury and granddaughter, Mildred, visited relatives in Fryeburg a few days recently.

School began Monday, April 6th, with Sadie Flint and Mrs. Flora Locke of South Chatham as teachers. We are all glad to welcome them back and may they be successful in the school year.

WATERFORD. Cary McKinney visited Leah Day over Sunday.

Merton F. McAllister of Stoneham visited Hazel Millett, Sunday.

H. L. Whitcomb and C. S. Wiggins have been working for F. H. Morse.

DENMARK.

Mrs. Sarah Walker. Sarah Walker was born in Albany, N. H., May 11, 1830. She was married to Ephraim Sanborn at Hiram, Oct. 24, 1848. To them were born nine children: Frank L., Gideon M., Moses L., Ruth D., Willis E., Fred H., Freeman E., Flora B. and Frances A. The father died in 1889 and three children, Frank L., Gideon M. and Moses L., have died. Mrs. Sanborn quietly passed away Sunday evening, the 29th, at the age of 77 years, 10 months and 18 days. She was a member of the Congregational church in Denmark, and was a sincere Christian, an exemplary mother and a generous neighbor. Her death was a great shock and is generally lamented.

The funeral was held at her late residence in town on Tuesday afternoon conducted by her pastor, Rev. A. C. Boyd, and her remains were laid to rest in the Gray cemetery in this village.

Some have begun house cleaning. George Jordan of Harrison was in town last week.

Annie and Cora Wentworth of Kezar Falls were in town visiting relatives and friends last week.

Florence Jewett is gaining from her severe sickness and her friends hope for a speedy recovery now.

Ruth Sanborn is gaining slowly. She walks out for a short distance occasionally by the aid of her crutches.

HARRISON.

The Schools Begin. All schools in town are to begin Monday, Apr. 20, and continue ten weeks. The following are the teachers for the summer term: Village grammar, Jessie R. Lamb; village intermediate, Mrs. Vida A. Greene; village primary, Emma L. Proctor; Bolster's Mills, Emma F. Milliken, with Mrs. Elizabeth Scribner, assistant; Cummings, Ethel E. Thomas; Brackett, Mrs. Rita M. Lamb; South Harrison, Rena L. Buck; Center, Mrs. Annie D. Robinson; Lewis, Zilla M. Fogg.

Albion W. Pendexter, who has recently been married, will reside in the small house on the Randall farm and work for the present owner, Joseph Pitts.

Maple syrup is beginning to make its appearance in the market and is selling at $1.25 per gallon. The season is said to have been rather poor thus far.

Elbridge Sanborn has bought the small place near Ira Keeland's, which was formerly owned by Henry Packard, and will move this week. The farm which he formerly occupied is owned by Andrew Wawal of Somerville, Mass., and his family will occupy it during the present season.

J. Handall has recently moved into the new buildings, which were built for him on the Joseph Pitts farm in South Harrison, last season. He has sold his farm to Joseph Pitts. Mr. Handall's new residence is the finest one in town, or will be when the grounds are graded in good shape.

At the annual meeting of the Superintending School Committee Alphonzo Moulton was chosen as Supt. of Schools for the ensuing year, and it was voted to pay nothing for transportation of the scholars during the coming year. It was also voted to change the school year so that it will hereafter begin with the fall term. Hence the teachers are being hired for only one term.

Dr. P. S. Page, physical director of Phillips school, Andover, Mass., together with his wife and two children, is spending his Easter vacation at his camp at the Gray Landing, South Harrison, and during his stay there will perfect arrangements for his summer school, which is to be run there during the coming season.

The old Tavern stand at Harrison village has been purchased by Frank P. Bennett, the superintendent of the corn shop, who will fit it up for a tenement house. It is understood that he will make extensive improvements in the house which is considerably out of repair.

Silas Pitts' son Bert is at home. Frank Ricker still continues very ill. Mrs. Willis Libby is able to be about the house.

Oscar Keeneland goes to Portland on the jury, Apr. 12.

Allie Keeneland has gone up to his farm for the summer.

John Haskell, who has been quite ill this winter, is out once more.

Quite a good attendance at the Free Baptist circle, Friday night. A pleasant time is reported.

ONE OF PORTLAND'S LANDMARKS RESTORED

Make it Yourself.
Tells Our Readers How to Mix Best Rheumatism Cure.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the readers of a large New York daily paper the following valuable, yet simple and harmless prescription, which any one can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

He states that the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy at small cost, and, being of vegetable extraction, are harmless to take.

This pleasant mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome almost any case of Rheumatism. The pain and swelling, if any, diminishes with each dose, until permanent results are obtained, and without injuring the stomach. While there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent results, and the above will, no doubt, be greatly appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately, or the druggists here will mix the prescription for our readers, if asked to.

"April Fool's day's past."

Ralph Stubbs from Roslindale, Mass., who is staying with his aunt, Mrs. Peter Wheeler, recently knit a pair of mittens for himself.

The building we show here is familiar to most of our readers who have visited Portland, having been occupied for the Drug business of H. H. Hay continuously since 1856.

It was enlarged and completely remodelled in 1905, but through an unfortunate fire in November last, the new upper stories were destroyed, and the rest of the building almost completely wrecked.

It is now being restored and will be re-opened early this month with every modern improvement and convenience for quickly handling business in Drugs, Chemicals, Physicians' and Sick Room Supplies, Toilet Goods and Sundries.

It is a matter of interest to many to know that the upper floors of this block will be the home of the old reliable remedy, "L. F." Atwood's Bitters, a household safeguard known to many of us since childhood.

A corporation has been formed for taking over the Paint business of the concern, giving both branches a better opportunity to handle this rapidly increasing business. This will be carried on under the name of the Charles M. Hay Paint Co.

Our readers and the people of the State generally will, no doubt, be glad to avail themselves of the prompt mail order, and express facilities, with fair dealing which they are sure to meet with in addressing these two enterprising houses.

A Family For Old Medicine Young

Acadia, Me., Aug. 3, 1906.

"My family has been using the true 'L. F.' Atwood's Bitters for many years, and they are perfectly satisfied. It is now a family medicine to us."

Yours truly, Emily Violette.

The surest safeguard against sickness is "L. F." Atwood's Bitters. Young and old can always depend upon them in diseases of the digestive organs. 35c. at the store.

TO CURE PAIN,
Necessary to Treat the Nerves Both Internally and Externally.

Nervous headaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, and other nerve troubles need internal treatment as well as external. Get right at the nerve centre with a small dose of Neuralgic Anodyne, which will soothe and quiet the whole nervous system. At the same time, rub a little Anodyne on the affected part, and it will find its way through the pores of the skin to the aching tissues and throbbing nerves.

Neuralgic Anodyne is so uniformly successful in curing all aches and pains that it is sold by dealers everywhere with the understanding that the money will be refunded if it does not do all that is claimed for it. A large-sized bottle costs but 25 cts.

Neuralgic Anodyne is also invaluable in quickly curing colds, croup, sore throat, etc., and in taking the soreness out of bruises, sprains, cuts and chilblains. Made by The Twitchell-Champlin Co., Portland, Me.
